CHELSEA ART FAIR

ABOVE: MAKO SHARK, ALASTAIR GIBSON, £30,000

Chelsea Old Town Hall | 23 – 26 April

Chelsea art is on the up. Not only is it the chosen spot for Saatchi's latest modern art machine, but it is also the venue for a large annual art fair. More than 40 galleries specialising in contemporary and 20th century art will exhibit over four days in Chelsea's Old Town Hall. The prices are reasonable too, with most of the work priced between £75 and £5,000 (for the big spenders among you, there will be pieces with a bigger price tag of £30,000). (penman-fairs.com)

SoLon Gallery | 17 April – 16 May

Beauty is only skin deep, isn't it? Young artist Sarah Gwyer investigates the aesthetics of beauty in contemporary art by reflecting upon the desperate measures used to remain ever young. (salongallery.co.uk)

AUCTION SPOT!

Jewellery sale | 8 April

Diamonds are a girl's best friend... and emeralds... and rubies... oh, and not forgetting pearls of course. That's why we'll be sitting front row to the striking jewellery auction on at Bonhams' salerooms in Knightsbridge. Who says money can't buy you happiness? (bonhams.com)

HOLLAND PARK ART EXHIBITION

28 March – 5 April

The Friends of Holland Park's annual art exhibition returns to The Orangery for nine days of high class art created by professional and semi-professional artists. All forms of media will be exhibited, including media, ceramics and small sculptures. A prize fund is up for grabs for the best in show, presented by the actress Julia Foster (aka Ben Fogle's mum).
